-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-22, drawn to a method of removing unconsolidated material using pressure, classified in class 134, subclass 22.12.
 - II. Claims 23-45, drawn to a method of removing unconsolidated material by applying force, classified in class 134, subclass 33.
 - III. Claims 46-56, drawn to a method of cleaning unconsolidated material by applying at least one cleaning agent, classified in class 134, subclass 34.
 - IV. Claims 57-65, drawn to a method of recovering unconsolidated material, classified in class 588, subclass 249.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation since the invention of Group I is directed to applying pressure in comparison to the invention of Group II directed to applying force.
3. Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation since the invention of Group I is directed to applying pressure in comparison to the invention of Group III which is directed to cleaning the unconsolidated waste by applying a cleaning agent.

4. Inventions I and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions since the invention of Group I is directed to cleaning the unconsolidated material in comparison to the invention of Group IV which is directed to the recovery of the unconsolidated material.

5. Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation since the invention of Group II is directed to applying force in comparison to the invention of Group III which is directed to cleaning the unconsolidated waste by applying a cleaning agent.

6. Inventions II and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation since the invention of Group II is directed to applying a force in comparison to the invention of Group IV which is directed to the recovery of the unconsolidated waste.

Art Unit: 1746

7. Inventions III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions since the invention of Group III is directed to removing unconsolidated waste in comparison to the invention of Group IV which is directed to the recovery of the unconsolidated waste.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
